

My biggest charity is public radio and TV. Your conglomerate ownership of the airwaves will certainly incubate dissenting voices hopefully that will unfortunately function on small venues. I, as a older citizen I see will have to get more involved in this issue. We need freedom of the press not freedom for the billionaires profiting.

Gail Sherman